

The central cube is stationary and the semi transparent ship orbits it. The opaque ship is controllable using the arrow keys for pitch and yaw, and the space bar for thrust. The asteroid rotates in the Z axis. The star field is drawn first with a z value of -1000 so as to remain behind all other objects.